

SECURITY EXECUTIVE FORUM –LONDON

🔗 EVENT SCHEDULE 🔗

DAY ONE

Time	Event Activity	Description
08:30-09:00	MORNING TEA/ COFFEE, LIGHT REFRESHMENTS	Arrive early to savor a freshly brewed tea or coffee accompanied by an assortment of baked delights. Take advantage of this time to network and secure premium seating.
09:00-09:30	INTRODUCTION	The hosts will give an overview of the seminar agenda, and their professional backgrounds and experience. Attendees will introduce themselves and the organizations they represent.
09:30-10:45	TECH & INDUSTRY TRENDS IN OSINT	A Fireside chat moderated by Amotz Brandes for a deep dive with subject matter expert Marco Ferrarini (Chameleon Security Intelligence Analyst). Topics will include current macro and micro threats and, integration of intel analysis into a security framework.
10:45-11:00	MORNING BREAK	Use the break to connect with fellow professionals while enjoying fresh coffee and a selection of light refreshments.
11:00-12:30	PREDICTIVE PROFILING	Presenter: Berndt Rif . Learn how Predictive Profiling boosts situational awareness and response. This session highlights key applications, procedures, and training essentials.
12:30-13:30	LUNCH	An opportunity to network over lunch.
13:30-14:50	ADVERSARY'S WORKSHOP	Presenter: Amotz Brandes . This hands-on workshop helps participants adopt an adversary's mindset through simulated attack planning and defense. Teams explore tactics, identify vulnerabilities, and develop countermeasures, gaining insights into proactive threat response.
14:50-15:10	AFTERNOON BREAK	Take a moment to stretch your legs, enjoy a hot beverage and sample a selection of sweet treats.
15:10-16:30	INSIDER THREAT PREVENTION	Presenter: Amotz Brandes . Insider threats—whether malicious or negligent—can be deeply damaging yet are often overlooked. This session covers practical strategies, behavioral indicators, and tools to help organizations discreetly detect, prevent, and respond while preserving trust and culture.
17:00-18:30	SECURITY SOIRÉE	Join us for an exclusive networking reception to relax, share insights, and celebrate with peers. Whether discussing Red Teaming over a whiskey or diving into Predictive Profiling with a mocktail, this is a chance to connect. Come for the drinks, stay for the conversation.

DAY TWO

Time	Event Activity	Description
08:30-09:00	MORNING CAFE/TEA, LIGHT REFRESHMENTS	Please arrive early and enjoy a fresh cup of tea or coffee with a selection of assorted baked goods.
09:00-10:20	MANAGING FEAR - EMPOWER YOUR WORKFORCE	Presenter: Amotz Brandes . Security leaders often act as “fear consultants,” balancing panic and complacency. This session examines how fear impacts decision-making and offers strategies to demystify threats, reduce anxiety-driven responses, and build resilience.
10:20-10:40	MORNING BREAK	Refreshments and a chance to stretch your legs.
10:40-12:30	RED TEAMING – DEFEAT THE ENEMY BY BECOMING THE ENEMY	Presenter: Jonathan Barkan . Red Teaming goes beyond penetration testing to simulate full adversarial processes. It boosts readiness, sharpens decision-making, and exposes vulnerabilities. This session covers implementation, stress-testing, and building a proactive security mindset.
12:30-13:30	LUNCH	An opportunity to network and break bread with forum attendees over lunch.
13:30-14:45	THREAT-ORIENTED SECURITY CASE STUDY IN RED TEAM IMPLEMENTATION	Presenter: Mike Prout . Integrating Red Teaming globally requires more than tactics—it demands alignment with legal, ethical, and organizational frameworks. This session presents a case study of a multinational Red Team program, offering insights on compliance, team structure, and balancing privacy. Learn how internal and external Red Teaming boost readiness, awareness, and resilience, with actionable strategies for sustainable implementation.
14:45-15:05	AFTERNOON BREAK	Stretch your legs, grab a cuppa and enjoy assorted sweets.
15:05-16:30	ACTIVE SHOOTER MITIGATION AND RESPONSE	Active shooter and suicide bomber attacks present some of the most Presenter: Amotz Brandes . Active shooter and suicide bomber threats demand urgent, effective response. This session uses real-world cases to share actionable countermeasures and challenge conventional thinking, helping participants adopt a threat-oriented mindset for greater survival and preparedness.
16:30-16:45	CONCLUSION	Attendees will be handed certificates of completion and will review the relevance of the course material to their organization's security operations.